Who?

Join a group of enthusiastic volunteers working with the Wildlife Trust to conserve and protect wildlife in Bedfordshire.

Why?

As a registered charity, volunteers are a vital resource for us, helping us carry out much-needed work. Also, you can get fit, meet new people and help conserve wildlife all in the same day!

When?

Every Tuesday, meeting at 9.00 a.m. at the Wildlife Trust office, Priory Country Park, Bedford, (or on site at 10.00 a.m. - see details overleaf), returning to Priory by 5.00 p.m.

Where?

We will be working on a range of nature reserves across Bedfordshire, including woodlands, wetlands, grasslands and other sites of interest.

www.wildlifebcn.org Registered Charity No. 1000412

No previous experience needed!

We will give you all the training and instruction you will need. Tools and gloves are provided, along with hot drinks and even a biscuit, or two! All you have to do is come along with outdoor clothing and stout footwear (or wellies) and waterproofs. Remember to bring a packed lunch.

So how do I get involved?

Contact: The Wildlife Trust, Priory Country Park, Barkers Lane, Bedford MK41 9DJ 01234 364213, or Andy Fleckney: 07850 887271 Richard Knock: 07872 418279
