After learning about climate change at school, these two superstars decided to take action! All by themselves they planned a bake sale to raise money for the Wildlife Trust.” Amy H.

Our need for nature has never been clearer, but it’s no secret that nature is in trouble.

Wildlife is disappearing at an alarming rate and the threat of climate catastrophe is a constant worry. But there is hope – with your help we can tackle both of these critical issues.

£5 Could pay for a pond dipping tray, net and magnifying glass, or feed a sheepdog for a week

£25 Could pay for a sweep net to help us survey meadow wildlife

£100 Could pay for 180 sphagnum moss plants, to help lock carbon into the soil

Whatever you do and however much money you raise, your support is greatly appreciated and will make a real difference to your local wildlife and wild places.

WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WEATHER
Think about who to invite – do you want people to take part or sponsor you? What event do you want to do? Where is your event going to take place? What will the weather be like? If your event is outdoors make sure you are ready for all eventualities! Just pick a date well in advance so you can let everyone know about it.

INVITE
Promote your event. Send out invites, print a poster* and post on social media so that everyone knows what you’re up to! Remember to include time, date, location and purpose. And remember to let us know: fundraise@wildlifebcn.org

PREPARE
Make sure you have everything you need for the big day. Stay as environmentally friendly as possible: plastic bags, balloons and glitter can harm wildlife and habitats and you can have just as much fun without them! Make sure you have sponsor forms* printed off, or set up a fundraising page at justgiving.com and choose us as your charity.

ENJOY
It’s important that you enjoy your day – it is fundraising after all! Take lots of pictures to record your event – these will be great to send to the press to let them know how well you have done. Remember to ask for permission if you’d like us to use them. Don’t forget to tell us how your day went, and tag us @wildlifebcn on social media. You can find us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

THANK YOU!
If you’ve raised money online, e.g. through JustGiving, you don’t need to lift a finger as the money comes straight to us, but it would be lovely if you could drop us an email to let us know! fundraise@wildlifebcn.org

If you’d like to make a credit or debit card payment please go online at wildlifebcn/donate or call us on 01954 713543

Or you can pay by BACS:

STAY SAFE AND LEGAL

Here’s how to keep everything above board

RESPONSIBILITY
It’s really important that all safety aspects are thought about beforehand, as the Wildlife Trust BCN cannot accept any liability for any accidents or incidents that occur as a result of your fundraising event. If you’re using a venue, check whether they have insurance, as you can’t use the Wildlife Trust BCN’s public liability insurance to cover your own events.

SAFETY
Always do a risk assessment for the location of your event to make sure you have identified any hazards and have a plan in place for emergencies. Visit sj.a.org.uk or institute-of-fundraising.org.uk for more information.

PUBLIC EVENTS
Please check hse.gov.uk for information about holding your event in a public place, and remember to obtain a licence from your local authority if you are collecting money in a public location.

FOOD AND DRINK
Everyone involved in preparing and serving food needs a basic understanding of food hygiene, and if you’re selling alcohol you need a licence from your local authority. If you’re providing refreshments make sure you alert people to any allergens. Food.gov.uk is a comprehensive website for food safety laws in the UK.

RAFFLES
If you’re organising a raffle, remember that you can’t sell tickets to anyone under 16. If you want to run a public raffle, you’ll need to apply to your local authority for a licence, but you don’t need one for a private one as long as tickets are only sold to staff at a workplace or members at a club.
