

Wildlife Trust BCN Great Eastern Run Event Terms & Conditions

1. By applying to enter the event, you agree and accept the following terms and conditions, which will govern your participation in the event.
2. In order to hold a charity place, you must be aged 18 or over on the date of application.
3. Where you are obtaining a place in the event via the Wildlife Trust BCN, we ask that you pay a nonrefundable registration fee of £10 at the time of registering. Payment is made online. No registration fee is payable to Wildlife Trust BCN if you have arranged your own place directly with the event organiser.
4. Furthermore, if you have made a mistake on your registration, you have a 24 hour grace period in which to request a refund for your registration, as long as that period doesn't overlap with when the registration period closes e.g. 24 hours before event ticket sales end.
5. Other than set out above, we will only give you the option to request a refund for your registration fee in the event of a cancelled or postponed event.
6. All registration fees are non-transferable, and places cannot be rolled over to the subsequent year's event, should we take part in future years.
7. You must inform the Wildlife Trust BCN at the earliest possible opportunity if you have to withdraw from or cancel your entry due to injury or other circumstances.
8. You understand and agree that any place you have obtained in this event with the Wildlife Trust BCN comes with a fundraising target of £150 attached to it and that you are agreeing to fundraise at least the specified amount in order to take part in the event as per our webpage.
9. You understand and accept that the Wildlife Trust BCN may terminate your rights to raise funds at any time, if they feel you are in breach of the Fundraising Code of Practice, particularly, but not limited to, behaviour when fundraising. Your fundraising must be legal, open, honest and respectful. For further information see Ethical fundraising, sustainable giving | Fundraising Regulator
10. All places are for the exclusive purpose of raising money for the Wildlife Trust BCN. All participants must pledge to raise funds for the Wildlife Trust BCN and fundraising must not be given to or shared with any other organisation (unless agreed prior to registering).
11. We ask that you collect in all sponsorship monies promptly and pay them to us within six weeks of the event taking place. Details will be provided of how to pay the money to us. Please note that all online money donated to your online fundraising page will automatically be transferred to the Wildlife Trust BCN and doesn't need to be sent to us after the event.
12. If we feel that you are unable to fulfil this fundraising element of your place and you subsequently ignore any communications detailing this, we have the right to remove you from the event and offer your place to another supporter.

13. We will provide you with a community fundraising pack to help you prepare for the event and maximise your fundraising.
14. We will support your training and fundraising efforts through our social media channels, digital, and printed communications as appropriate leading up to the event. If you do not wish us to do so then please inform us.
15. The Wildlife Trust BCN is not responsible for providing any guidance for your training for this event. By registering for this event it is assumed that you will undertake the necessary training to successfully participate and seek any medical advice to ensure that you are fit, capable, and healthy to take part. We recommend that you consult a doctor or other healthcare professional before registering.
16. You are fully responsible for the fundraising activity and it is your responsibility to organise all aspects of it. You are also responsible for any costs, expenses, or taxes incurred or arising in connection with your fundraising activity.
17. You must obtain approval from the Wildlife Trust BCN before approaching the media or celebrities to support your fundraising for the event.
18. You understand and agree that your fundraising is 'in aid of' the Wildlife Trust BCN and is undertaken independently of the charity and that the charity will not accept any responsibility or liability for your fundraising events or activity.
19. Images may be taken during the event using film photography, digital photographs, video or other media and may be used on our website and in promotional material in any medium. By taking part in the event or attending the event you are deemed to have given your consent, unless you notify the Wildlife Trust BCN or any express objections. In the event that you raise any objections to the use of any image in which you are featured after the event, the Wildlife Trust BCN will remove that image from its website and refrain from any future use of it, however we cannot undertake the removal from circulation of any printed materials already in use or from other online locations. The Wildlife Trust BCN acknowledges its responsibilities towards children, young people, and vulnerable people and will, wherever possible and practicable, refrain from capturing their images.
20. You may not use the Wildlife Trust BCN's logos without our prior consent. To apply for permission please contact us at fundraise@wildlifebcn.org. The Wildlife Trust BCN reserves the right to require materials and logos to be removed from use if we believe such materials are not in our charity's interest.
21. While participating in the event you will be acting as an ambassador for the Wildlife Trust BCN. We therefore ask that you conduct yourself accordingly and do nothing to bring the charity into disrepute. You must comply with any specific event rules and instructions from the event stewards.
22. Your participation will be subject to the race organiser's own terms and conditions as well, which can be found on their website Great Eastern Run - 11th October 2026. We accept no liability for the organisation or management of the event.

23. Where the event organiser requires participants to register directly in addition to the Wildlife Trust BCN's registration process, whether via completion of an additional registration form or an online console, it is your responsibility to do so. You must do so by the deadline specified by the organiser and failure to do so may lead to you losing your place in the event. You may receive communications from the organiser instructing you to complete any necessary registrations with them. The Wildlife Trust BCN is not responsible for your failure to complete any additional registrations.
24. We accept no liability for any damage to any participant's property. We accept no liability for any injury to any participant unless caused by the Wildlife Trust BCN's negligence.
25. We will use your personal data in connection with your participation in the event, including providing you with any support as previously mentioned and recording the funds you raise for us. If you do not wish us to contact you about our work and other ways in which you can support us you will be able to opt out of communications from the Wildlife Trust BCN. For further information about how we use your data please refer to our privacy policy Privacy Notice | Wildlife Trust for Beds Cambs & Northants
